THE MOUSETRAP

St Martins Theatre, London

Agatha Christie's THE MOUSETRAP has been at home at St Martins Theatre in the West End for an incredible 70 years and is keeping millions of people from every corner of the globe on the edge of their seats.

THE MOUSETRAP gathers a group of people together at a stately countryside guesthouse in the converted Monkswell Manor. A snowstorm cuts the patrons off and they discover, to their horror, a killer is amongst them. Which one is the murderer? Who will be their next victim?

The characters become increasingly suspicious as the show goes on until each and everyone of their shameful pasts is revealed up until the last, when the moment the identity of the killer and motive are finally revealed.

KISS ME KATE

The Barbican Centre, London

With Cole Porter's razor-sharp witted lyrics, it's 'The ultimate Broadway musical from the golden age' (Financial Times) and is Broadway musical comedy meets Shakespeare meets Noises Off.

Directed by Bartlett Sher (The King and I, South Pacific and To Kill A Mockingbird) and with a company of over 50 including a full-scale orchestra, Kiss Me, Kate features classic songs including Another Op'nin', Another Show, Brush Up Your Shakespeare and Tom, Dick or Harry. Adrian Dunbar stars as Fred Graham with Tony Award winner Stephanie J. Block making her West End debut as Lilli Vanessi.

Kiss Me, Kate is the original farce and whisks you into a world of backstage chaos and romantic entanglements. It's the perfect summer musical for 2024.

OPERATION MINCEMEAT

The Fortune Theatre, London

After sold-out runs at New Diorama Theatre (2019) and Southwark Playhouse (2020, 2021 & 2022), plus an extended Riverside Studios run, OPERATION MINCEMEAT: A NEW MUSICAL is currently enjoying another extended run in the West End at the Fortune Theatre.

The year is 1943 and we're losing the war. Luckily, we're about to gamble all our futures on a stolen corpse. Singin' in the Rain meets Strangers on a Train, Noel Coward meets Noel Fielding, OPERATION MINCEMEAT: A NEW MUSICAL is the fast-paced, hilarious and unbelievable true story of the twisted secret mission that won us World War II. The question is, how did a well-dressed corpse wrong-foot Hitler?

You will have some time before enjoying the show to get refreshments and Covent Garden is a 5-minute walk away.

OLIVER

Chichester Festival Theatre, West Sussex

This spectacular new production of Lionel Bart's iconic musical has been fully reconceived especially for CFT by director and choreographer Matthew Bourne and Cameron Mackintosh and promises to be one of the most unforgettable shows ever at the Festival Theatre.

The orphaned Oliver escapes the harsh Victorian workhouse and takes refuge in London's murky underworld with the wily gang leader Fagin and his team of resourceful pickpockets led by the Artful Dodger. He finds a friend in the kind-hearted Nancy and when he's wrongly arrested for stealing, Oliver meets an unexpected saviour; but is happiness truly within his grasp?

With a sensational score, including Food Glorious Food, Consider Yourself, You've Got to Pick-a-Pocket or Two, I'd Do Anything, Oom Pah Pah, As Long As He Needs Me and many more, the Olivier, Tony and Oscar-winning masterpiece vividly brings to life Dickens' ever-popular story of the boy who asked for more.

THE FISHERMANS FRIENDS IN CONCERT With Support Act

Brighton Dome, Brighton

The Fisherman's Friends have nine albums to their name, two feature films, a stage musical, a book, a TV documentary, they've played for royalty and to tens of thousands of fans in sell-out tours year in year out... No, it's not The Beatles, Take That or One Direction – it's The Fisherman's Friends!

A decade ago, The Fisherman's Friends signed a million-pound record deal that saw their album Port Isaac's Fisherman's Friends go Gold as they became the first ever traditional folk act to land a UK top ten album.

And thanks to the small film with a big heart that shares their name, the story of the original Cornish 'buoy band' is known around the world – bound by shared experience, for more than 30 years they have gathered on the Platt on the harbour in their native Port Isaac to sing the songs of the sea, songs that in some cases have been handed down for hundreds of years, songs that connect them to generations of Cornish fishermen that have come before them.

WINCHESTER and WHITCHURCH SILK MILL TOUR

We spend the morning exploring Winchester, chance to explore the town, Friday market and take early lunch,

Then in the afternoon visit Whitchurch Silk Mill for a guided tour. In 1985, after falling into disrepair, the Mill was rescued by the Hampshire Buildings Trust, who began restoring the buildings. The Mill opened as a living museum in 1990, under the management of Whitchurch Silk Mill Trust, to ensure the survival of silk weaving using traditional machinery and methods.

Whitchurch Silk Mill is now an Accredited Museum that weaves silk and delights everyone visiting. Our collections span over 200 years and about 5,000 objects. We tell the story of 200 years of silk making in Whitchurch and enable visitors to watch skilled Weaver Tacklers using 19th-century machinery.

WINDSOR & DORNEYWOOD

We begin with time in Windsor so you can explore and get lunch before we visit Dorneywood.

We enjoy a free flow tour of the house before time in the garden, and splitting into groups to do this.

Dorneywood House is an official government residence, reserved for a Minister of the Crown or the Secretary of State. As such, it is not open to the public. It was bequeathed to the National Trust by Lord Courtauld-Thomson in 1942 on the provision that it be used by the current Prime Minister or a senior cabinet minister. Now it is the grace and favour residence of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Several well-known Prime Ministers occupied Dorneywood before becoming PM. Among these are John Major, Anthony Eden, and Alec Douglas-Home. The house interior boasts paintings from the government's own collection of art as well as paintings owned by the National Trust.

Dorneywood Garden is a combination cottage and kitchen garden in 1930s style, set around an 18th-century house. The garden features a lily pond, a stylish conservatory, a rose garden, and herbaceous borders. In 1910 the house was badly damaged by fire. It was rebuilt and the gardens laid out in 1942. There are 215 acres (87ha) of garden, parkland, woods, and farmland. In the past, the house was closed to visitors but in recent years there has been a limited 2-week opening period in the summer. We will enjoy Tea and Cake served in a Gazebo on the lawn during our visit.

National Trust membership will not apply on this occasion, as we are getting an exclusive first day opening visit and will be the only ones at the property.

BLETCHLEY PARK – 1940s WEEKEND

Bletchley Park was Britain's best kept secret, due to the secrecy surrounding the activities there during WWII and the vital importance to our security and ultimate victory. The site boasts a Visitor Centre, restored buildings and refreshed exhibits to preserve and commemorate the tireless work of the Codebreakers. Atmospheric soundscapes conjure up how it would have sounded during wartime.

Our visit coincides with Bletchley Park's much-loved 1940s Vintage Weekend. Enjoy live music, dance classes, vintage lawn games, historical displays and vehicles, reenactors and vintage stalls, and much more.
